We Have Waited for Him, and He Will Save Us

Long ago, the prophets in the Old Testament knew that Jesus Christ would come to earth. The prophet Isaiah wrote, "Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, and he will save us" (Isaiah 25:9).

The people waited and waited for many, many years. Then, on that first Christmas night, Jesus was born in Bethlehem. The wait was over! Angels praised God, and the shepherds hurried to see the baby Jesus.

Sometimes we have to wait too. We wait for Christmas morning, we wait to grow up, and sometimes we wait for our prayers to be answered.

Jesus came, just like the prophets promised. That helps me know that Heavenly Father always keeps His promises. Jesus will come again someday too, and I want to be ready.

I am so grateful that Jesus came to save me. In the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
